FLORIDA FOREST RESERVE.

Government Agent in DeFuniak Preparing to Open It.

The DeFuniak Breeze of last week has the following:

Mr. J. V. Hubbard of the Forestry Division of the Department of Agriculture, is here for the purpose of making a investigation of the timber, soil and growing conditions of the proposed forest reserve which was set aside two years ago consisting of practically all the territory south of the railroad and west of Homestead, and from him it is learned that the reserve will probably be made permanent and placed under the heavy restrictions about the last of the year.

If this is done it will, of necessity, mean a considerable number of changes particularly in reference to the growing of stock, forest fires, etc., and it might be well for those interested to learn just what these regulations are that they may begin to prepare for them. We understand from Mr. Hubbard that while the regulations are required to be strictly observed but they are applied gradually so that in case hardship than is necessary is required upon settlers within the reserve, that is in reference to grazing and the running at large of stock in the reserve, but as to setting out fires, the government enforces the regulations with absolute vigor and the penalties which are heavy are a certainty.

In the reserve in this county the stock most likely to be most affected will be hogs, which will be more than likely to run at large at all. We are not quoting Mr. Hubbard in this article but it is based on what we know of conditions and the regulations enforced elsewhere, the prime purpose of the forest reserve being to protect and encourage the growth of the young timber.

State Pension Law.

Sam Jefferson Bell, who is connected with the pension department of the Comptroller's office, and who is therefore in a position to speak with knowledge, says in a recent issue of the Peninsula Journal, that the strongest disapproval of the Florida pension law has been voiced by the veterans themselves. "They question the justice of the law," he says, "that places a man who endured the hardships of four years of battle and carnage and limped home at his knees, having a leg or arm on some blood-soaked battlefield, upon the same plane with home guards who never left home, or with the man who, according to his own statement, 'served his country four years during the war as clerk of the circuit court, and belonged to a company of home guards that never went into service.' Most of the criticism of the law worth considering has been based on the opposition to the idea of making the tax payers to pay pensions to men who never saw service and to actual veterans who have earned a competence since the civil war, and who do not need the money. The money raised by the four mill tax goes only to actual veterans and does not comfort, none but a pensioner would object to the law. Sam Bell says that during the past six months under the law, about 4,300 claims have been filed, pending the roll, and the Comptroller, Enterprise-Record.

Some states erect, weaken the law with chronic constipation. Some states operate easily, tone up the law with chronic constipation. 25c for a bottle of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

Newspaper Life in Dunnellon.

The following paragraph would indicate that the editor of the Dunnellon Advocate has been slightly "up against it"—also that he is making some commendable, if belated, New Year's resolutions:

"The editor of this paper has quit talking hard times, quit taking hard drinks—and hopes to quit getting hard knocks—and has gone to work for the upbuilding of a greater and more progressive Dunnellon.

"We have had the greatest abundance of carnivals for Dunnellon, for awhile at least—that is so far as the editor is concerned. The editor went down to the carnival grounds last week and flew around on the ferris wheel until he lost his equilibrium, ate a sandwich at the 'hash joint' that gave him the 'mully grubs,' and then got sassy with a fellow, who gave him a punch in the eye. Nay, nay, Pauline, no more carnival for 'us.'"

SECTION 1. Whenever the Executive or Standing City Committee of any political party in the City of Live Oak shall decide to take by primary election the sense of the members of said party as to the proper person or persons to be presented on behalf of that party to the voters of said city at any election to be held in said City under the law and Ordinance thereof, at least four weeks' notice shall be given by publication once each week in some newspaper published in the City of Live Oak, or by posting notice of such primary election in three conspicuous places within said City, if there be no newspaper published therein, of the place where the voters belonging to that party are requested to meet for the purpose of acting in relation to the nomination of candidates as hereinabove stated. In such notice and the primary election held in pursuance thereof the sense of the members of that party may also be taken as to the proper person or persons to be elected as the members of such executive or standing city committee to succeed the committee calling the same.

SECTION 2. Such notice shall also state the day on which such election is to be held and the hours within which it is to be held and the name of the inspectors and clerk appointed to hold such election and receive votes that may be cast thereat and make report and return thereof and the time when such return and report shall be made to the committee directing such meeting to be held.

SECTION 3. Whenever the executive or standing city committee of any political party which in the last preceding election cast forty per cent of the votes cast, shall have called a primary election to be held prior to the time for the registration for a general election the registration books of said City shall be open for ten week days immediately preceding the three days before any such primary election and the supervisor of registration of said City shall publish notice of the opening of said books in at least two weekly issues of some newspaper published in Live Oak or by posting in three public places, and the said books shall be kept open for the purpose of registration from the hour of nine o'clock a. m. to twelve m. and from two o'clock p. m. until five o'clock p. m. of each day. At the expiration of the registration period herein provided for said books shall be closed to registration for such primary election.

SECTION 4. No person can vote or take part in the proceedings of any primary election who is not by the Ordinances of said City a lawful elector and authorized to vote in any legal election in said City.

SECTION 5. The executive or standing city committee calling such primary election may declare the terms and conditions on which lawful electors offering to vote at such election shall be regarded and taken as proper members of the party at whose instance or in whose interest such primary election has been called or may be held, and therefore entitled to vote at such election as a member of that party.

SECTION 6. Any recognized member of the party in whose interest such election is held may challenge the right of any person offering to vote at such election and the inspectors authorized to hold and holding such election shall determine on the evidence then furnished whether the person so offering is entitled to vote at such election and shall receive or reject such votes so offered as to them the evidence for or against the right of the person so offering to vote shall reasonably warrant.

SECTION 7. The inspectors holding such primary election under the provisions of this Ordinance may of their own motion, or in case of the challenge of any person offering to vote, if they deem there is any doubt of the propriety under the provisions of this Ordinance of the votes so offered, require of the person so offering to vote his oath to the fact which authorized the vote and if the person so offering to vote declines to make oath so demanded his vote shall be rejected.

SECTION 9. The report of the committee so directing such primary election by the officers holding the same shall be in writing with which the original ballots shall be returned and the poll list of the voters made at the time of the voting and the reasons on which any challenged vote was received or rejected. Said committee shall carefully examine the returns and reports so made and thereupon decide who have been chosen by the majority vote cast in the primary election as candidates of the party for the office or offices to be filled in the approaching election, or what person or persons have been chosen as members of the executive committee calling such election.

SECTION 10. A second primary election shall be held within two weeks after the first primary election to choose in all cases where no person shall have received a majority of all votes cast for the several candidates receiving the highest vote in the first primary election. Where several officers are to be voted for for the same office, as in case of Aldermen for the City at Large, a number of candidates not exceeding twice the number not nominated in the first primary shall be voted for in the second primary and those candidates receiving the highest vote in the second primary of the number remaining to be chosen shall be considered chosen.

SECTION 11. The inspectors who may hold such primary election under this Ordinance and return the votes, proceedings and acts thereof, herein provided, shall, before assuming the duties, make oath before some officer authorized to administer oaths that they will honestly, faithfully and to the best of their ability do and perform all the duties of their respective offices.
